

ABOUT RDA PROGRAM

Explore the RDA program, an exclusive initiative designed to recognize and elevate the standards of research leadership within academic institutions. By participating in RDA, research deanship can attain a prestigious accreditation that underscores their steadfast commitment to research excellence.

REQUIREMENTS

To submit an application for RDA accreditation, your Deanship must first meet the established eligibility criteria. These criteria typically focus on various aspects of your research environment and resources, ensuring a minimum threshold for research activity and potential.

WHY CHOOSE RDA?

Embrace this opportunity to enhance your institution's profile, foster innovation, and be a catalyst for advancing the frontiers of knowledge. The RDA accreditation is not just recognition; it's a transformative step towards shaping the future through unparalleled research leadership.
